Creation, Presentation, Preservation

Fashion is a history of the people. To some, fashion is considered the most personal art form. What you wear is vital to your personal expression. It is your chosen skin and allows each person to be as individual as they prefer. It is your armour to protect you from elements of life. Much like the cinematic arts, it brings people together and divides opinions.

The liberation of women from corseted confinement, the creation of ready-to-wear clothing, logos, licensing, window displays, fashion shows, marketing and even protection of intellectual property rights, are each a direct result of the ingenuity, bravery and creative genius of individuals who were in their lifetimes stylistic and societal visionaries.

During the Fashion Film Festival we will be presenting 18 films, divided into three sections as well as two gala events. Each film will be shown twice during the two week period. Afternoon screenings (2pm & 5pm) are $5, the 7:30pm evening sessions are $10, and the two gala events are $20.

Be in to win!!! Every patron who views a film is invited to vote for their favourite. All entries will go in to win one of two $50 vouchers kindly sponsored to us from Katwalk Fashion and Alex Campbell Menswear.

Opening and Closing Night Gala: $20 / ticket

Creation: 8 films following designers through their process of designing fashion

Presentation: 6 films highlighting individuals who photograph, critique, model and manufacture fashion

Preservation: 4 films about the work involved in curating fashion for the future.

Suited

Going deeper than fine fabrics and silk linings, the film takes a modern, evolved look at gender through the conduit of clothing and elucidates the private and emotional experience surrounding it. With heart and optimism, the film documents a cultural shift that is creating a new demand — and response — for each person's right to go out into the world with confidence.

True Cost

This is a story about clothing. It's about the clothes we wear, the people who make them, and the impact the industry is having on our world. The price of clothing has been decreasing for decades, while the human and environmental costs have grown dramatically. A groundbreaking documentary film that pulls back the curtain on the untold story and asks us to consider, who really pays the price for our clothing.

Valentino

One of Italy's most famous fashion designers, Valentino Garavani, this film captures the end of an era. However, at the heart of the film is a love story — the unique relationship between Valentino and his business partner and companion of 50 years, Giancarlo Giammetti. Capturing intimate moments in the lives of two of Italy's richest and most famous men, the film lifts the curtain on the final act of a nearly 50-year reign at the top of the glamorous and fiercely competitive world of fashion.

Westwood

Since igniting the punk movement with ex-partner and Sex Pistols' manager Malcolm McLaren, Dame Vivienne Westwood has been redefining British fashion for over 40 years and is responsible for creating many of the most distinctive looks of recent time. Blending archival footage and insightful interviews a portrait emerges of Vivienne's fascinating network of collaborators, taking viewers on her journey — from a childhood in postwar Derbyshire to the runways of Paris and Milan.

Marc Jacobs & Louis Vuitton

From Japan to America, the LV sign dominates the fashion scene. And one man alone designs the Louis Vuitton creations. The film offers an intimate and revealing portrait of the reclusive Marc Jacobs and the world of haute couture. Whether in the offices and workrooms of Paris and New York, the back of his car, or backstage at a fashion show, we see a genius at work. Jacobs endures unimaginable pressure to chart new paths in fashion as he straddles the demands of the Louis Vuitton conglomerate and his own Marc Jacobs label.
